The Loss Prevention Foundation Announces New Board Members

Matthews, NC, (October 2, 2014) – The Loss Prevention Foundation (LPF) announced the selection of its newest board members to assist in governing and providing strategic direction for the Foundation at its recent board meeting in Savannah, GA.

The following individuals have accepted the nomination and have been approved by the board to serve on the Foundation's Board of Directors:

- Scott Glenn, J.D., Vice President & CSO, Loss Prevention, Safety & Business Continuity, Sears Holdings
- Mike Silveira, Vice President Loss Prevention, CVS Health

Also, the following past board members received special recognition for their past contributions and support to the board of directors:

- Sonya Hostetler, Vice President of Asset protection & Safety, Walmart
- Al Voels, Managing Director, PricewaterhouseCoopers

"The Foundation continues to strive for a broad range of industry perspectives so we can serve the loss prevention/asset protection industry in an informed and comprehensive manner," said Gene Smith, LPC, president of The Loss Prevention Foundation. "These leaders have proven that they have tremendous industry vision and have clearly demonstrated their commitment to improving the loss prevention industry through supporting education."

Each of these new board members has openly expressed their support for industry-specific loss prevention certification. They are personally committed to obtaining the LPC designation and have supported their companies approving the LPQ and LPC as a preferred requirement for all job postings. It is clear that, each of them has a passion for improving our professional perception as an industry and feel professional certification is a critical step in achieving that goal.

"The Foundation continues to amass strong retail support for its mission—educating the loss prevention industry by providing challenging and convenient resources such as our LPQ and LPC certification programs," said Frank Johns, LPC, chairman of The Loss Prevention Foundation. "Each of these professionals brings a unique perspective as a result of their extensive expertise in loss prevention and store operations."
